

Hall of Residence VIII

Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur

Farewell to Mr. Vinod Tiwari Mr. Rajkaran Singh

The farewell ceremony of Mr. Vinod Tiwari & Mr. Raj Karan Singh commenced on Independence Day, 15th August 2023, at 08:30 AM. Following our usual tradition, we initiated a fundraising campaign among the students for this event. The contributions gathered from the residents of the hall amounted to Rs 4462/-, & additionally, the Mess Warden, Dr. CK Sahu, contributed 1000/- rupees. Consequently, the total amount collected for the event reached Rs 5462/-. We acquired tokens of appreciation using the funds we had collected.

The farewell gathering commenced with the Mess secretary extending a welcome to the Warden-in-charge, Mess Warden, Maintenance Warden, HEC representatives, Mess committee members, mess staff, and all residents. The session was chaired by the Warden-in-charge. Subsequently, the Mess manager, secretary, President, and all wardens took turns reminiscing about their cherished moments with the Hall staff member, Mr. Vinod Tiwari. They recounted how Mr. Tiwari had diligently served the hall, always with a warm smile and engaging interactions in the dining area. Everyone extended their best wishes to Mr. Tiwari for a joyful retirement ahead

"Next, Mr. Tiwari recounted several of his treasured moments within the hall, reflecting on his extensive service to various halls within IIT Kanpur. Responding to requests, he serenaded the audience with a rendition of 'Me Toh Deewana Deewana Deewana,' reminiscent of his journey at IIT. Subsequently, he was honored with a collection of thoughtful gifts, including an umbrella, a set of kurta pajamas, undergarments, socks, and shoes, a towel, a shawl, a bouquet, a crockery set, and a cash gift of 501 rupees

Following that, a photography session captured moments with Mr. Tiwari alongside all the attendees of the gathering, including wardens, students, and staff. Each warden, student, and staff member extended their good wishes to Mr. Tiwari as he embarks on the next chapter of his life's journey.

The meeting was concluded with a vote of thanks by the Mess manager.

Due to some unavoidable reasons, Mr. Rajkaran Singh was unable to join the event. The same set of goodies has also been bought for him. The mess management will hand over them all when Mr. Singh is in town.
